Client Success

Victor Robertson is a participant in the adult program.

Victor is a veteran and wanted to have access to more job opportunities so he got involved with the American Job Center. The way in which the program has been helping him is by lifting any financial burden that he might encounter while pursuing higher education. He said that through this program he was able to grow personally to obtain the new career goals he has set for himself. He is now working on obtaining an associate's degree in GSI and cartography.

Program Spotlight: Ticket to Work

Ticket to Work is a free and voluntary program that is available to persons aged 18 to 64 who have a disability and receive Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) and/or Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

- Free benefits planning by certified work incentive benefits counselors to learn about protections and incentives for returning to work.
- Individualized services and assessments to determine what cash and medical benefits could be affected by work.
- Continuing Disability Reviews (CDR's) are waived while your ticket is assigned and you are making timely progress.
- Learn how to transition back into full benefits if you need to.
- No waiting list for services.
- Face to Face meetings.
- Wraparound services.
