SUCCESS STORIES

D'Angelo entered the Ticket to Work Program in March of 2022. Although he had experience volunteering, entering the program would be his first attempt at employment. D'Angelo worked hard to extract his volunteer experience and develop a desirable resume. He landed his first job at Home Depot in April of 2022. Since then, D'Angelo has been gaining experience, developing work relationships, has received a pay increase, and has enjoyed his journey to full-time employment. D'Angelo also has personal experience in building and repairing computers. His long-term plan is to continue gaining work experience, enroll in certification courses and land a career in computer repair.
