SUCCESS STORIES

Jennifer Inness entered the Adult Title I B program during the heart of the pandemic. Not really sure what to do Jennifer worked with her career planner on deciding her future career. After a bit Jennifer and her career planner decided administrative work would be Jennifer's future career. Jennifer had no previous experience in administrative work, so it was decided she would complete an internship in the Resource room of the American Job Center. Jennifer got started and exceeded in her position by providing extreme customer services to every customer in the American Job Center. There were openings for both a Resource Room navigator and Work Experience Coordinator with Dynamic Workforce, currently contracted out to complete the work for the American Job Center resource room and Title I B Program. Jennifer applied for both positions and was hired on full-time as the new Work Experience Coordinator. Jennifer has exceeded in her internship position and the Dynamic team are excited to have her on board.
