Program Spotlight: Dislocated Worker Program

American Job Center's Dislocated Worker Program aids individuals affected by a layoff to transition to new employment by providing job search assistance and training opportunities.

All services are provided at zero cost to the job seeker and are funded by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act.

Eligibility:

- You have been terminated or laid off, or
- You have received a notice of termination or layoff from employment,

- You are self-employed and are currently unemployed because of general economic conditions or natural disaster, or
- You are a homemaker that has been providing unpaid services to family members in the home and now must reenter the workforce, or
- You are a service member or a spouse of a service member that is separated or will be separated from the U.S. Armed Forces.

Client Success

Hosanna Sok is a participant in the adult program.

Hosanna was able to receive her bachelor's degree in nursing with the help of the American Job Center. They were able to give her career and financial support. She is now a full-time nurse at Hill Elementary School and loves working closely with youth for any of their health needs.
